

A

The Stolen Statue

Imagine that you are a detective.

A contact within the police has informed you about a stolen statue.

Nobody knows how it was stolen early Monday morning, but there are certain clues ...

What you have to write:

Write about the stolen statue.

Who took it?

What happened?

Where was it found?

etc.

You may write about a real statue or one which only exists in your imagination.

For your help and inspiration:

You may use these words,
but you don't have to.

lorry: lastbilur

van: vøruvognur

crab (wrecking car): kranabilur

saw: sag

axe: øks

drill: borur

excavator: gravkúgv

wheelbarrow: hjólbøra

warehouse: pakkhús

siren: sirena

police car: løgreljubilur

handcuffs: handjörn

Black Maria: 'salatfat' (vognur til fangaflutnings)

crime doesn't pay: brotsverk lønar seg ekki

Tarira, 2000,
Hans Pauli Olsen

Women from Tórshavn, Andrias Andreassen

Man and woman, 1971
Janus Kamban

B

My kind of music

*'Thank you for the music,
the songs I'm singing.
Thanks for all the joy they 're bringing.
Who can live without it,
I ask in all honesty
What would life be?
Without a song or a dance
what are we?
So I say thank you for the music
For giving it to me'.*

ABBA

What you have to write:

Write an essay about music that you like.
You may write about:

- your favourite group or singer
- a concert that you went to
- the pleasure of singing, playing an instrument or composing your own music.

Essay title: My kind of music

C

Ghosts

What you have to write:

Answer 1 or 2.

1. Write an essay with the title Ghosts in which you discuss whether ghosts exist or not.

You may include stories to show your point.

2. Write a ghost story - 'true' or imaginary.

Make your own essay title